

JMSDF

7th INTERNATIONAL MARITIME CONFERENCE

Galle Dialogue 2016
Sri Lanka

“The importance of comprehensive capacity building for successful
Strategic Maritime Partnership”

RADM Ryo Sakai,
Director General, Plans and Operations Department, MSO, Japan Maritime Self Defense Force

UNCLASSIFIED

“The Sea is common to all”

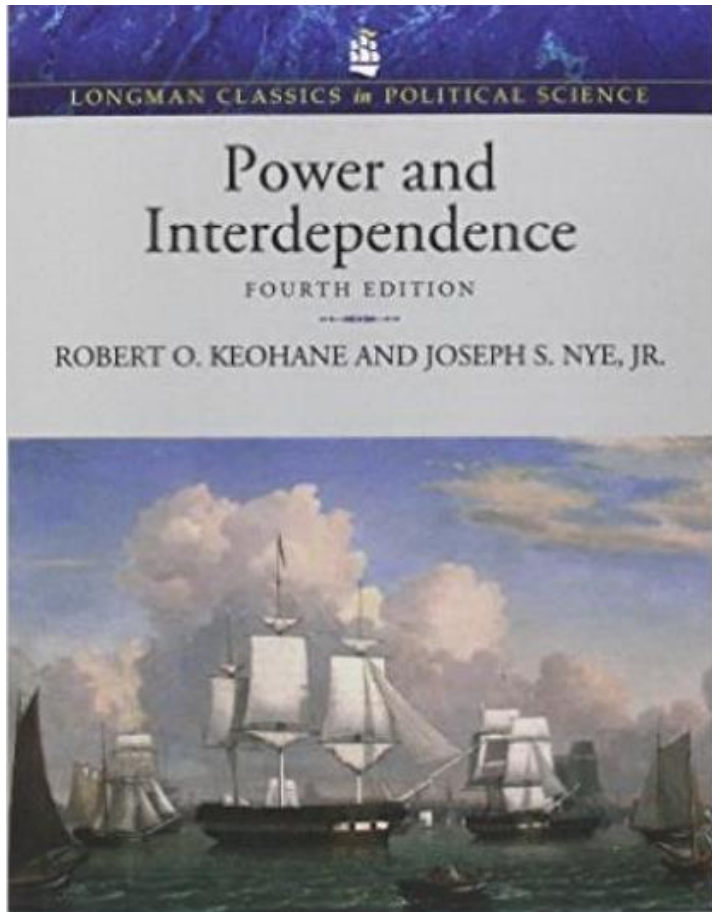

Hugo Grotius

Father of International Law responsible for the concept of “freedom of the seas”

Source: www.constitution.org/gro/djbp.htm

Comprehensive Capacity Building is one of the key to foster Strategic Maritime Partnership

Source: AMAZON.com

Three Periods of Maritime Regime

I. 1920' to WW II

Traditional maritime regimes

II. WW II to 1960s'

Focus on costal interests

III. Late 1960s' and beyond International law (UNCLOS)

By Keohane and Nye

Current UNCLOS assures the maritime regime which is based on the rule of law

PIRACY AND ARMED ROBBERY AGAINST SHIPS IN ASIA (2015)

7% INCREASE
IN NUMBER IN 2015
COMPARED WITH 2014

Ratio of increase declined over 2012-2015

5 YEARS-OVERVIEW

NO INCIDENT OF HIJACKING OF TANKERS FOR THEFT OF OIL CARGO SINCE SEPTEMBER 2015

12 incidents reported, of which 2 were foiled by authorities.

ARRESTS AND PROSECUTION

Arrest of
mastermind

Arrest of
perpetrators

Found and detain ships
used by perpetrators

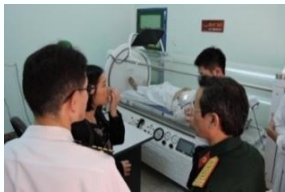

Source: ReCAAP Nautical Forum 7/16

Maritime challenges occur across borders and progress simultaneously

Hardware Support

Effort

Software Support

TRUST

Source: Rochester City School district

Japan's comprehensive capacity building

National Defense Program Guidelines for FY2014 and beyond

” to implement seamless assistance in security-related areas, including through strategic utilization of ODA and capacity building assistance”

Official Development Assistance Examples in Sri Lanka

Ramboda Tunnel

Manampitiya Bridge

Colombo Port

Dredging Ship

Japan's comprehensive capacity building

Japan's Defense Capacity Building Assistance

Further information

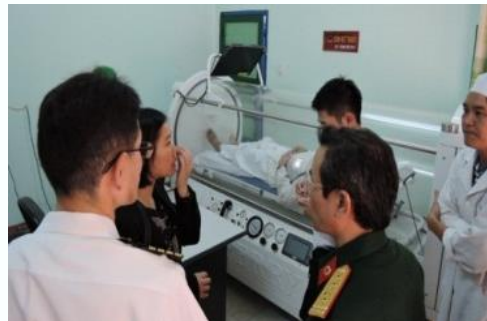

http://www.mod.go.jp/e/publ/pamphlets/pdf/cap_build/pamphlet.pdf

TC-90 Transfer

Engine maintenance

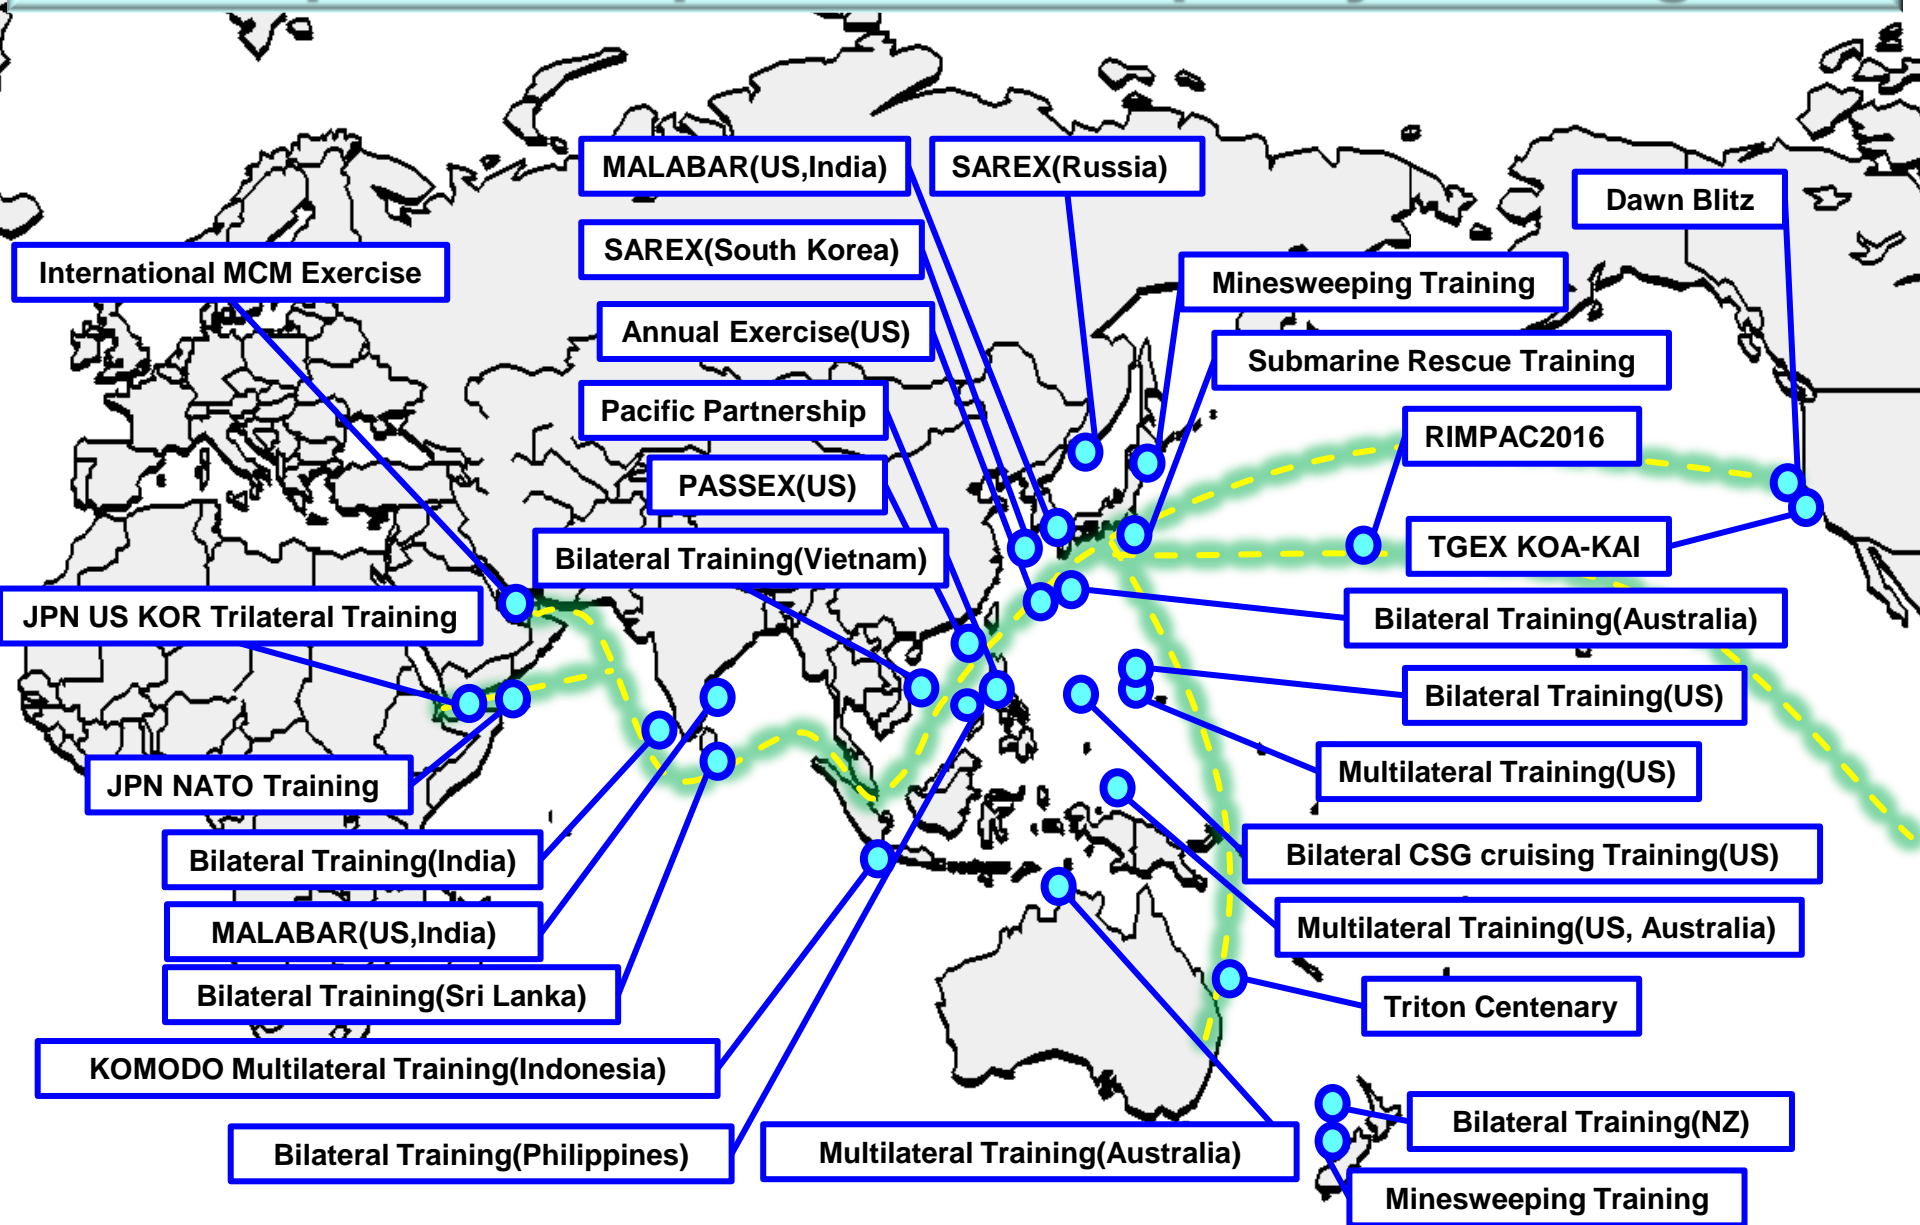

Underwater Medicine

Hydrography

Japan's comprehensive capacity building

7th INTERNATIONAL MARITIME CONFERENCE

Galle Dialogue 2016
Sri Lanka

RADM Ryo Sakai,
Director General, Plans and Operations Department, MSO,
Japan Maritime Self Defense Force

Japan Training Squadron
7 – 12 Oct 2016, Colombo